PACKAGE

Dear Collaborators and Industry Partners,

It is our pleasure to invite you to support our next meeting, which will be held in Philadelphia from June 29 – July 3, 2018. This will be the XXI Biennial Congress on Infant Studies. Our congress will provide you with great opportunities to showcase your products and interact with many researchers and clients.

Of the growing number of researchers who attend our meeting – we expect approximately 1,300 attendees – many will be interested in discovering the products you have to offer. Our attendees cover a wide range of international leading infancy research professionals, policymakers, and practitioners representing all fields related to infancy development. Some of the attendees are concerned with basic research or theory; others focus on policy issues and practical applications. These studies require many advanced tools and equipment that companies like yours provide.

Our congress will be held at the Loews Philadelphia Hotel, a landmark hotel in Centre City Philadelphia. Located in the nation's first skyscraper, Loews Philadelphia Hotel combines living history with warm sophistication.

Advertise in our congress program or conference app, be an exhibitor and display your product, or sponsor a portion of the congress and receive extended exposure to the 1,300+ group of assembled Infancy Research specialists! Full details can be found in this package.

Your presence at our congress is a much appreciated demonstration of your support for the International Congress of Infant Studies.

Sincerely,
Kathy Hirsh-Pasek
International Congress of Infant Studies

What is the XXI ICIS Biennial Congress?

The XXI ICIS Biennial Congress brings together researchers and practitioners from the many disciplines comprising the world of Infant Development. ICIS is devoted to the promotion and dissemination of research on the development of infants.

The first ICIS Biennial Congress was held in the United States in 1978. The congress has continued to grow and move throughout the world. The XX Biennial Congress in New Orleans, LA attracted over 1300 delegates.

Who is organizing the congress?

The XXI ICIS Biennial Congress is being organized under the leadership of the ICIS President Kathy Hirsh-Pasek (Temple University), incoming President Lisa Oakes (University of California, Davis) with support from the Board of Directors and multiple sub-committees.

The Program Committee is led by Chair Jenny Safran (Wisconsin University) with support from Laura Lakusta (Montclair State University), Margaret Tresch Owen (University of Texas, Dallas) and Roberta Golinkoff (University of Delaware).

The overall congress planning process is organized by ICIS and the team at Podium Conference Specialists.

Who attends the congress?

The congress draws principal investigators, post-doctoral fellows and grad students actively engaged in infant development studies. Attendees include professionals and graduate students in psychology, human development, family studies, education, public policy, sociology, social work, psychiatry, pediatrics, public health, anthropology, speech pathology, and linguistics. Although most delegates are based in the United States, a growing number of congress attendees are from other countries such as Canada, Europe, Australia and Asia.

Past congresses' drew scientists, postdoctoral fellows and students along with industry and governmental representatives.
