

Saturday 11 March 1978

9:00 - 5:00 Registration Lobby, Main Level

8:00 - 11:00 Demonstration: A technology for estimating early language comprehension Resolution Sessions, College

(15) Workshop: Issues involved in longitudinal research with high-risk infants and families.

Moderator: Anita M. Sostek, Georgetown University School of Medicine.

Participants: Roger Bakeman and Josephine Brown, Georgia State University; Tiffany Field, University of Miami; Susan Goldberg and Barbara DiVitto, Brandeis University; Jane Hunt, University of California; Barry Lester and Peter Gorsky, Children's Hospital Medical Center, Boston, Massachusetts; Keith Scott, University of Miami.

8:00 - 9:00 (16) Discussion / Debate: The contributions of social dimensions and interactional variables to the infant's appraisal of strangers. Canal, Benevolent

Moderator: Frank A. Pederson, National Institute of Child Health and Human Development.

Participants: Martha Zaslow, National Institute of Child Health and Human Development; Jeanne Brooks-Gunn, Institute for the Study of Exceptional Children and the Educational Testing Service.

8:00 - 9:25 (17) Paper Session: Auditory processing in infants. Angell

Moderator: Robert S. Buncy, State University of New York at Buffalo.

Participants: W. Keith Berg, University of Florida; Marsha Clarkson, University of Florida; Robert S. Bundy, State University of New York at Buffalo; Katherine A. Benson, University of Massachusetts; Elizabeth Spelke, University of Pennsylvania; Katherine Best, Michigan State University.

Discussant: Rachel Clifton, University of Massachusetts

10:00 - 11:00 Sessions, College

(18) Discussion / Debate: Uses of the Brazelton Neonatal Behavioral Assessment Scale to capture the individual style of the infant.

Moderator: Edward Tronick, University of Massachusetts-Amherst.

Saturday 11 March 1978

Participants: Kathleen Bloom, Dalhousie University; Heldeleise Als, Children's Hospital Medical Center, Boston, Massachusetts.

9:05 - 11:00 (19) Workshop: Issues in the social and cognitive assessment of handicapped infants.

Moderator: Michael Lewis, Educational Testing Service.

Participants: Jeanne Brooks-Gunn, Educational Testing Service; Rune Simeonsson and Craig Ramey, Frank Porter Graham Center of the University of North Carolina; Frances Degen Horowitz, University of Kansas; Claire B. Kopp and Michael Pullis, University of California at Los Angeles.

9:30 - 10:55 (20) Paper Session: Attachment Angell

Moderator: Dale Hay, State University of New York

Attachment security in one-year-old infants. Russell L. Tracy, Tom F. Sampson, Charlotte A. Stewart, Paul R. Snelus and Linda Puckett (University of Texas at Dallas).

The predictive power of individual differences in security of attachment. L. Alan Sroufe and Richard Arend (University of Minnesota).

Potential attachment behaviors in newborns in the first hour post-partum. F.J. McLaughlin (Peabody College), Susan M. O'Connor (Nashville General Hospital) and Richard Deni (Peabody College).

Separation and reunion behaviors as indices of attachment. Toni Antonucci and Mary Levitt (Syracuse University).

HOW TO COMBINE CLINICAL ISSUES AND RESEARCH

T. Berry Brazelton, Harvard University and Children's Hospital Medical Center.

Moderator: Arnold Sameroff, University of Rochester.

Saturday 11 March 78

12⁰⁰ - 4³⁵
Demonstration: Maternal departure style and children's response to maternal absence.

Participants: Marsha Weinraub, Temple University; Jonathan Sprague, Temple University.

12⁰⁰ - 4³⁵
Demonstration: Design of playrooms, video recording and analysis of infant social interaction.

Participants: Edward Mueller, Boston University; Jeffrey Brenner, Boston University.

12¹⁰ - 1³⁵
(22) Paper Session: Early responses: their correlates.

Moderator: Ellen Hock, Ohio State University.

Temperamental difficulties in infants: correlates of maternal perceptions. John E. Bates, Claire A. Bennett and Mary L. Lounsbury (Indiana University).

Mother-infant interaction with low and full birthweight infants. Lucille C. Atkin (Anahuac University, Mexico City).

The relationship of ordinal position to attachment behaviors on the Israeli Kibbutz. Nathan A. Fox (Roosevelt Hospital, New York City, and Education Testing Service).

Released responses in early infancy: evidence contradicting selective imitation Sandra W. Jacobson and Jerome Kagan (Harvard University).

12¹⁰ - 1³⁵
(23) Paper Session: Biological status variables

Moderator: James Weiffenbach, National Institute of Health Reduction of sleep apnea in pre-term infants on oscillating waterbeds. Anneliese F. Korner, Christian Guilleminault, Johanna Van den Hoed and Roger B. Baldwin (Stanford University School of Medicine).

Early sex differences in reactivity to naturally occurring physical stimulation. Theodore D. Wachs (Purdue University).

The relationship of stress pregnancy to perinatal infant status and maternal readiness. Eric Dlugokinski and Freda Jones (University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center).

Sex in the nursery: a methodological study. Susan Goldberg and Nancy Feldstein (Brandeis University).

Friday 10 March 1978

12⁰⁰ - 4³⁵
Resolution
(13) Paper Session: Vision

Moderator: Michael Gilmore, Yale University
 The effects of discontinued motion on perceived object identity by infants. Jane Megaw-Nye, Cynthia J. Owsley, Arlene S. Walker and Eleanor J. Gibson (Cornell University).

Spatial orientation at six months of age: search guided by landmark. John J. Reiser (University of Minnesota). Visual scanning of repeatedly presented patterns by 3-4 month old infants. Peter Coles (University of Oxford, England) and Marian Sigman (UCLA Medical School).

Infant visual accommodation. Martin S. Banks (University of Texas at Austin).

8³⁰ - 10⁰⁰
(14) Invited Address:
BIOLOGICAL ASPECTS OF PARENT-INFANT COMMUNICATION IN MAN

Hanus' Papoušek, with the collaboration of Mechthild Papoušek Max Planck Institute.

Introduced by: Lewis P. Lipsitt, Brown University

Commercial Exhibits:

Ballroom Foyer, 9⁰⁰-5⁰⁰
Friday and Saturday, 10-11 March
9⁰⁰-3⁰⁰ Sunday, 12 March

Coffee:

Available in the Ballroom Foyer (check condensed schedule.) Coffee is also served in the Hospitality Suite during the Conference.

Messages:

A telephone is available in the Hospitality Suite where phone calls can be received. Have calls placed to the Marriott Inn and transferred to the "ICIS Hospitality Suite." A message board is located in the Ballroom Foyer.

Meeting Rooms:

The meeting rooms are located on two levels of the hotel. On the Lower Level are four conference rooms (Enterprise, Resolution, Bounty, and Constitution) in which scientific demonstrations and a round table discussion are being held. All other sessions are held on the Main Level in the Ballroom, which is composed of five meeting rooms: Sessions, College, Canal and Benevolent and Angell.

Smoking is not permitted in the conference rooms or Ballroom.

Local Arrangements / Hospitality:

A Hospitality Desk is located near the Registration area in the Lobby. Information concerning the city of Providence, hotel facilities, local restaurants, social events, etc., is available at the Hospitality Desk or in the Local Arrangements / Hospitality Suite.

Mrs. Edna Lipsitt, Chairman of the Hospitality program, has kindly arranged special social events for the Conference. These include:

- 1) A tour of historic Providence sponsored by the Providence Preservation Society.
- 2) A walking, guided tour of Brown University
- 3) An exhibit of early Americana relating to child rearing practices at the John Carter Brown Library at Brown University.
- 4) A production of "Equis" by Trinity Square Repertory Theatre, 2 p.m., Saturday, 11 March. Reserved theatre tickets and information can be obtained at the Hospitality Desk.
